ALAMO GROUP INC. ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF NORTH AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL DIVISION

SEGUIN, Texas, March 30, 2015 -- Alamo Group Inc. (NYSE: ALG) announced that effective April 6, 2015. Richard H. (Rick) Raborn will be joining the Company as its Executive Vice President, North American Agricultural Division.

Rick comes to Alamo Group from Illinois Tool Works (ITW), one of the world's leading diversified manufacturers of specialized industrial equipment, consumables and related service business, where he was Vice President and General Manager of the Powertrain Metals Division. He was with ITW and a predecessor company, Sexton Can, for the last eighteen years. Rick graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi where he earned a degree in Business Administration.

Ron Robinson, Alamo Group's President and Chief Executive Officer commented, "We are delighted to have Rick join our management team. He will be replacing Rick Pummell in this position who, as previously announced, will be retiring from Alamo in May after over 10 years with the Company running our Agricultural Division. Rick Raborn's wealth of experience with international manufacturing companies like ours makes him an excellent addition to our Company, and I look forward to working closely with him as we continue to develop our business in this division. He will be based at Alamo's corporate headquarters in Seguin, Texas."

Alamo Group is a leader in the design, manufacture, distribution and service of high quality equipment for infrastructure maintenance, agriculture and other applications. Our products include truck and tractor mounted mowing and other vegetation maintenance equipment, street sweepers, snow removal equipment, excavators, vacuum trucks, other
